Step 4 : Images

Hort.net www.hort.net/gallery/ A gallery of images online including 4465 images, 2196 plants (as of March 31, 2010).

Plants Database <http://plants.usda.gov/java/> The US Department of Agriculture provides information on plants.

Step 5 : Magazines and Scientific Articles

To find articles and current research about your topic, use a journal index online at the Guelph library website (see link below). A journal index is similar to the library catalogue. But instead of searching our collection of books in the catalogue, it searches a database where articles from magazines and journals are collected. Look for the 'Get It' button or full-text link to read articles online.

Start Here: Journal indexes – select Biology & Life Sciences

Agricola: a comprehensive index to agricultural and life sciences information from the US . The primary focus is on the United States but there is international information as well.

Biological Sciences: an interdisciplinary database offering abstracts and citations to a wide range of research in biomedicine, biotechnology, zoology and ecology, and some aspects of agriculture and veterinary science.

CABDirect: provides international literature in agriculture, forestry, and allied disciplines, including: animal and crop husbandry, animal and plant breeding, plant protection, genetics, forestry engineering, economics, veterinary medicine, human nutrition and rural development.

Plant Science: contains citations and abstracts of scientific literature on plant science, focussing on all plant scientific aspects, especially pathology, symbiosis, biochemistry, genetics, biotechnology, techniques and environmental biology.

Step 6 : Searching the Internet

The term "public websites" refers to sites that can be reached through a search engine. Many of the links given above lead you to "invisible web sites" that the library pays for, such as journal databases. Typically, if your professor tells you not to use web sites on an assignment, they are referring to public web sites.

Plants Database

An American government resource providing standardized information about the vascular plants, mosses, liverworts, hornworts, and lichens of the U.S. and its territories.

BioBest.be

A Belgian company with international subsidiaries in natural pollination and biological control. Information on pests, bumblebee pollination, side-effects of chemical pest control products on biological control agents.

Greenhouse Canada
